

SUTTON LSCB THRESHOLD GUIDANCE (BASED ON LONDON SCB THRESHOLD GUIDANCE)

Tier 1: Universal	Tier 2: Early Help/ Early Support	Tier 3: Complex Multiple Needs	Tier 4: Children in Acute Need
Development of the baby, child, or young person <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Developmental milestones are met, including age-appropriate emotional, academic, and social development; CYP is healthy; In education, employment, or training (EET); Displays age-appropriate behaviours and self-control; Does not go missing. Environmental factors <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Stable and safe housing; Safe neighbourhood; Financial stability; Good social networks and access to community resources; No links to proscribed organisations. Parental and family factors <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Regular access to universal services to meet child's needs; Consistent evidence of emotionally warm, encouraging, supportive, and protective parenting, with clear and consistent boundaries in place; Positive family network; All CYP's needs are fully met by the parents; No incidents or violence or criminal activity in the family; Parents' health, learning disabilities, and alcohol or drug use does not impact on parenting. 	Development of the baby, child, or young person <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Developmental milestones are not met, and CYP is below age-appropriate social development expectations; Health issues, due to a mild health condition, poor diet, lack of physical activity, or drug and alcohol use; Not in education, employment, or training (NEET); Negative sense of self and abilities, occasional demonstration of emotional or behavioural difficulties, and/or lacks emotional support; Expresses verbal support for extreme/ intolerant views; Has gone missing on one or two occasions; Occasional signs of neglect or abuse. Environmental factors <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Financial pressures and restricted access to public funds; Housing is stable, but dirty and not always safe; Neighbourhood has a negative impact on CYP; Family experiences social exclusion, bullying, and/or anti-social behaviour; Indirect links to proscribed organisations. Parental and family factors <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Parent/ carer not accessing universal services appropriately; A lack of emotionally warm and supportive parenting and age-appropriate boundaries and routines; Lack of support from family network; CYP's needs are mostly met by the parents with additional help; Low level/ isolated incidents of parental conflict and tension, mitigated by other protective factors; Parents' health, learning disabilities, and alcohol or drug use occasionally impacts on parenting; Concerns around disciplining of CYP and/or harmful traditional practices; CYP lives with adult who holds extreme/ intolerant views; History of criminal activity, and/or evidence of gang involvement. 	Development of the baby, child, or young person <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Some developmental milestones are not met and require specialist support; Below age-appropriate academic expectations despite ongoing support, and CYP refuses to engage in education or employment; Health issues, due to a health condition, poor diet, no physical activity, or substance misuse; Persistent demonstration of behavioural difficulties, which increases risk of anti-social behaviour, bullying, crime, substance misuse, and exploitation; Negative sense of self and abilities which is impacting on their outcomes and/or lacks emotional support. Concern that CYP may be self-harming or feeling suicidal; Isolated and has communication difficulties; Expresses beliefs of extremism/ intolerance. Persistently goes missing; Consistent signs of neglect or abuse. Environmental factors <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Family's legal status puts them at risk of involuntary removal from the country; Housing is dirty and unsafe; Neighbourhood has a negative impact on CYP; Financial resources are not used in the best interests of CYP; Family experiences social exclusion, bullying, hate crime, violence, and anti-social or criminal behaviour; Strong links to proscribed organisations. Parental and family factors <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Poor engagement with and resistance to recommended support and services; CYP discouraged from success in education or employment; CYP educated to hold extreme/ intolerant views and is accessing extremist imagery; Poor parenting is having a negative impact on CYP and appropriate boundaries are not set; Weak or negative family network; Historic or current low-level domestic abuse impacts on CYP's emotional wellbeing and increases risk of CYP being a perpetrator or victim of abuse including CSE; Physical or mental health, learning difficulties, and/or substance misuse of parents impacts parenting, and parent/ carer unable to protect CYP from harm; Concerns around disciplining of CYP and/or harmful traditional practices; History of criminal activity, and/or evidence of gang involvement. 	Development of the baby, child, or young person <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Developmental milestones are significantly delayed creating risk of significant harm; Complex health issues, due to a complex health condition, poor diet, no physical activity, or substance misuse; Persistent demonstration of behavioural difficulties, which places CYP at imminent risk of anti-social behaviour, bullying, crime, substance misuse, and exploitation; Negative sense of self and abilities which has been exploited by others. CYP is self-harming or disclosing suicidal thoughts; Completely isolated and has little or no communication skills; Expresses beliefs of extremism/ intolerance, and there are concerns that CYP is being groomed for involvement in extremist activities; Persistently goes missing, does not recognise risk, and may be involved in CSE; Shows consistent physical and emotional signs of neglect or abuse. Environmental factors <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Family members at risk of deportation; Family has no stable housing, and their home is consistently dirty and unsafe; Neighbourhood has a profound negative impact; Poor financial resources and budgeting results in CYP's basic needs not being met; Family is social excluded and involved in bullying, hate crime, violence, and anti-social or criminal behaviour; Family and/or friends are members of proscribed organisations. Parental and family factors <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Parent/ carer neglects to access recommended support and services; Strong suspicions/ evidence of fabricated illness; CYP is actively obstructed and discouraged from success in education or employment; CYP educated to hold extreme/ intolerant views, is circulating extremist imagery, and/or family is planning on travelling to a conflict zone; Relationships between parents and CYP have broken down and appropriate boundaries are not set which exposes CYP to significant harm; Highly volatile family network; Current domestic abuse is emotionally harming CYP, and CYP is at high risk of being or is already a perpetrator or victim of abuse including CSE; Physical or mental health, learning difficulties, and/or substance misuse of parents significantly impacts the care of CYP; Parent/ carer unable to protect CYP from harm and places them at significant risk; Parent/ carer physically harms CYP and/or may be subjecting them to harmful traditional practices; Current criminal activity, and/or evidence of gang involvement.

